

// 5TH WORKSHOP

Economics of Public Procurement

26 and 27 October 2023 | Mannheim

The ZEW – Leibniz Centre for European Economic Research, jointly with the University of Turku and the VATT Institute for Economic Research, is pleased to announce the call for papers for the fifth Economics of Public Procurement Workshop, which will take place in Mannheim on 26–27 October 2023. The event will be held in person on the premises of ZEW.

The symposium provides an annual forum to discuss recent advances in the economic analysis of public procurement and to bring together economists active in the field. Last year's programme can be found here.

The workshop will feature a keynote speech by Kei Kawai (UC Berkeley).

ORGANISERS AND PROGRAMME COMMITTEE

- ▶ Leonardo M. Giuffrida (ZEW, MaCCI, and CESifo)
- ▶ Janne Tukiainen (University of Turku and VATT)
- ▶ Adriano De Leverano (ZEW and MaCCI)

CALL FOR PAPERS AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT

For this edition, papers on collusion or secondary objectives (e.g. green or innovation policies) are particularly welcome. Papers are also invited on the following (non-exhaustive) list of procurement topics:

- ▶ Incentives, screening, and monitoring
- ▶ Political economy of allocation decisions and favouritism
- ▶ Governance of contracting agencies
- ▶ Firm and industry responses
- ▶ Efficacy of different award designs
- ▶ Active and passive waste
- ▶ Pre-award vs post-award outcomes
- ▶ Regulation
- ▶ Market structure

Both empirical and theoretical work is welcome. Interested authors are asked to submit a full paper in PDF format by 31 July 2023 via this link:
