

Nathalie Larrousé joined the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD) early 2024 to head the Green Capital Market team within the Climate Strategy and Delivery Team. Nathalie leads a product specialist team focusing on supporting green capital market transactions, providing market insight and capacity building for the private sector and municipalities in EBRD's Countries of Operation. She has been working for the past 15yrs at various international investment banks on the bond market working with institutional investors, and in Capital Market ESG advisory supporting issuers accessing the sustainable labelled debt market.

Nathalie holds a Master in Management, specializing in finance from EM Lyon Business School and studied Economics in France, UK and Mexico.